WIDELY CIRCULATED NEWSPAPER.

CAN THE BLIND SEE?

Can the eyesight be preserved? Can imperfect vision be restored? Can the aged enjoy reading as the young? Can science assist you? These are important questions. Remember that eyesight is priceless and that sight once lost can never be restored. Persons will buy a pair of cheap, imperfect spectacles, thinking economy, not knowing that they are doing themselves irreparable injury until it is too late. The popular opinion that the use of glasses should be postponed as long as possible is erroneous. As soon as you find your sight falling go at once to a specialist and have your eyes tested and glasses properly fitted. An invitation is extended to those who have never been able to find glasses to suit them, and to all in need of proper lenses to visit our new Optical Department.

Miss Bergland To-night.

This evening at the First Christian church, South Market street, a high class entertainment will be given for the benefit of the church. The leading feature will be Miss Jean Bergland's humorous and dramatic readings. She is a most pleasing elocutionist, artistic in her methods, and with unlimited versatility. She will be assisted by Mr. William M. Clemens and other well known local musical talent.

Freak of Lightning.

During a recent thunder storm, the house of William Drennen, near Loyds-ville, Ohio, was struck by lightning. The bolt tore open a closet door and scattered over the floor some clothing hanging in the closet. The carpet was also burned somewhat. The bolt passed clear through the house and tore up the well curb, but did no damage other than that mentioned. The family were asleep at the time, but aside from somewhat of a fright were not in any way injured.

Death of Mrs. John Mills.

The many friends of Mrs. John Mills in this city, where she resided for so many years, will be pained to learn of her death at Chicago, yesterday morning. She was the wife of Mr. John Mills, for a long time a member of the book-binding firm of Mills, Frew & Company. Mrs. Mills was a woman of most estimable and attractive qualities. Her remains will be taken to Greenville, her old home, and the interment will take place on Saturday.

"Sam" Douglass's Condition.

Mr. Sam Douglass, the well known colored citizen of Elm Grove, who was accidentally shot in the foot some days ago, was taken with lock jaw last Tuesday, his condition being so bad that he could not open his mouth. While somewhat better yesterday he is not out of danger. Dr. Cracraft, his physician, reports him as resting easier, but says his case is still critical. "Sam" is very popular in his community and has the respect of all classes who hope for his ultimate recovery.

In the Circuit Court.

In the circuit court yesterday before Judge Paul in the case of Daniel Ritter vs. Frederick Korsch and others, in chancery, the demurrer to the amended bill of complaint, was refused and the defendant given thirty days to answer said bill.

In the case of August Munchmeyer vs. August Meyer, in assumpsit, the plaintiff accepted a plea of tender, and the cause was set for trial May 12.

In the case of the Wheeling Loan Company vs. Thomas Halpin, suit on a note, the motion to set aside the verdict was overruled and judgment given for $194.17, with interest.

In the matter of the writ of habeas corpus sued out by Phillip C. Wenzel against Justice Fitzpatrick and Sheriff Franzheim, to be released from the custody of the sheriff for failing to enter into a recognizance of $100 to keep the peace, the plaintiff was discharged from further custody.

The rules recently adopted by the American Bowling Congress are to be used, except that games will be rolled on four alleys. Three games will be rolled at each meeting. Games cannot be postponed longer than one week. The schedule is as follows.

First and tenth weeks—May 4, July 6, Carroll Club vs. Daisies; May 5, July 7, Bloomers vs. Sunshines; May 6, July 8, Mail Pouch vs. Harvest; May 7, July 9, Apege vs. H. C. Richards; May 8, July 10, Summernachfeters vs. LaBelle.

Second and eleventh weeks—May 11, July 13, H. C. Richards vs. Carroll Club; May 12, July 14, Daisies vs. Summernachfeters; May 13, July 15, Bloomers vs. Harvest; May 14, July 16, Sunshines vs. Mail Pouch; May 15, July 17, LaBelle vs. Apege.

The league's prize list is as follows: Team prizes—First, $25; second, $15; third, $10; fourth, $5.
High average prizes—First, $15; second, $10; third, $5.
High score prizes—First $10; second, $5.

Summer bowling at the hill-top resort should prove quite popular among the bowling fraternity. The teams, however, it is feared, are not very evenly matched. Should two or three teams show greater strength than the others, there will be the inevitable loss of interest that has characterized the tournaments of the past two winters. If such a case should arise, people could have seen their way clear to adopting the old base ball millennium plan, of which the Intelligencer spoke some time ago, there would be no loss of interest. On the contrary the race would be at all times intensely exciting and interesting.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS.

This Business

Wasn't built in a day, but 'twas built to order. 'Twas begun honestly—has grown honestly—is growing honestly—has been pegging away for the past six years, giving all our time, thought, energy to the better store-keeping, wider stock offering, better value giving, lower price asking. Our shears have been whetted upon the stone of experience, our needle has been sharpened by earnest endeavor. Ambition has transformed the phantom of possibility into successful reality that makes our Ready-to-Wear rival the same of custom art.

Pride Work! $10 to $12.50.

Not much profit for us, for we wanted to sell better suits at these prices than ever. You can easily see the inducement. Better fabrics—Clay, for instance, that was never seen in a suit under $15, here at $10. Blue and Black Cheviots, Fancy Cheviots and Cassimeres—finish finer, cut with more care. If we don't save you $2.50 in either case, take your money back.

Men's $15 Suits

The fullest grade in the house—largest variety—hundreds of suits. Blue and Black Cheviots and Serges, Fancy Worsteds and Cassimeres. A big stock in itself with a legion of friends. They've got the best workmanship in the town. How can we say $15 when everywhere else no better are $20? Trade secret that. You're in our confidence. We bought hundreds of them the last few weeks from manufacturers who had to sell. We plunked down the spot cash. The unseasonable weather scored the manufacturers. They wanted to unload. See others. See ours, and you'll agree with us, sure.

Boys' Short Pants Suits.

$1.50 to $7.50.

Mothers wonder, but they like the variety, the worthfulness and the price. They're asked more everywhere they go, but quality wins, and our trade grows. Single and double-breasted here, and three-piece short pants suits, in Black and Blue Cheviots and Serges—fancy colors—novelties galore. We watched that they were well put together, so you won't have to watch the boys.

There's only one way to know who has the sort of Clothing you want. Go to the store that gives money back without a fuss, buy a Suit that you like, pay for it, take it to the other good stores and compare. Suppose you like the one at store number two or number three best—buy it—go back to the money-back store, tell them frankly you like suit best at store number two or three and want your money. We'll take any chance—begin where you will.
